The Bucharest-Ilfov Regional Development Plan BI RDP

The Regional Development Plan 2014-2020 is a strategic document, which presents the environmental, development and cohesion priorities of the Bucharest-Ilfov development region

A working tool for all stakeholders from the private and public sector concerned with socio-economic development of our region, at both national, regional and local level

Demographic trends

Demographic trends are affected by social and economic developments.

Migration flows, in particular, are related to regional differences in labour market conditions, people moving from areas of low job growth to ones with more employment opportunities will be determined by a range of economic and social factors, most especially by the availability of jobs, but also by education developments, the availability of child-care support a tendency to 'suburbanisation', the movement out of city centres to the suburbs and neighbouring building up the region's human capital—through education and workforce development reforms that gradually develop common standards in key sectors across the region—will offer better economic opportunities for the region's citizens, creating an engine for growth in each country and strengthening the region's competitiveness

Final remarks

- Improving accessibility and mobility it is important to access to basic services, jobs and goods for local development of the the Bucharest-Ilfov region

- The importance of continuing the networking process within the sustainable development context with

- New members
- New activities

All the actors must cooperate to develop the network in order to attract EU funds to finance sustainable projects
